1 for Prof Booth
1 " Col Snowden
1 " Danl M Fox

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE.

Original.

March 26th, 1886.

Received from James C. Booth, Melter & Refiner, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty 12/100 standard ounces silver bullion, valued at nineteen hundred and thirty six ^{62} ($1936.^{62}) dollars, being the equivalent for three silver bars delivered to him Dec. 2. 1884, unaccounted for by said Jas. C. Booth at the annual settlement June 30. 1885: said missing bars being numbered respectively as follows:- No. 7087 weighing 741.55 standard ounces.

7093 " 770.40 " "

7113 " 468.17 " "

1980.12 " "

in final settlement of said Melter and Refiner's account to June 30. 1885, and for adjustment of my bullion accounts to same date as Supt of the Mint.

A. Loudon Snowden

Late Superintendent

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

Superintendent's Office,

March 26th, 1886.

Danl. M. Fox.

Superintendent.

Receipt for 1980 12/100 Std Ozs.

No. of Enclosures, —

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE.

Duplicate.

March 26th, 1886.

Received from Daniel M. Fox, Superintendent of the Mint, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty 12/100 — standard ozs. silver bullion, valued at Nineteen Hundred Thirty=Six 62/100 ($1936.62) Dollars, being the equivalent of the three missing silver bars unaccounted for by me as Melter & Refiner at the annual settlement June 30. 1885, returned by me to A. Loudon Snowden, late Superintendent, and by him delivered to Daniel M. Fox, Superintendent, now redelivered to me for account of the United States, as a redelivery after settlement of my silver bullion account June 30. 1885.

Ja C Booth

Melter & Refiner.

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

March 26th, 1886.

Dan'l M. Fox.

Superintendent.

Receipt for 1980.^{12}/ Std. Ozs.

No. of Enclosures.